On your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) you indicated that you have dependents who receive more than half of their support from you. A dependent is someone other than a spouse that lives with you and receives more than half of their support from you. The amount of income you stated on your FAFSA indicates that you may not have the resources to provide more than half of the dependent’s support.

If the dependent does NOT receive more than half of their support from you and your spouse, you should check “NO” below and we will correct your FAFSA application electronically for you. Financial support includes money, gifts, loans, housing, food, clothes, a car, medical and dental care, payment of college costs, etc.

_____ No, I do not have dependents who receive more than half of their support from me.
